

73 active participants on Day Ahead Market - a new daily record

A new absolute daily record has been recorded for the delivery day July 28, 2011: 73 companies were active on DAM representing the maximum rate of interest shown by the participants since the launch in 2005 of the new trading mechanisms for short-term trading. This record reconfirms and strengthens the confidence of the market in the trading environments managed by OPCOM.