

CM-OTC – December 22, 2015 trading day

For the Centralized market with double continuous negotiation for electricity bilateral contracts (CM-OTC), has been registered a record regarding contract's volume traded for the electricity. Therefore, the total volume traded on 22nd of December 2015 trading session was at the highest level reached on CM-OTC for daily trades, respectively 890,956 MWh.

The reached record regarding daily trades is representing the result of the intentions competitively expressed by 33 active market participants and the trades value concluded on this date amounts 32,341,859.38 EURO (146,065,539.50 RON).