

The first transactions established on the Intraday Market

The first trades on the Intraday Market (IDM) were established, totalling an amount of 60 MWh for the delivery day of August 26, 2011. At the time of these results, a total of 22 companies have already signed the IDM Accession Agreement, the registration process of the participants to the market still being underway.